DOUBLE WEDDING. The crowning event of the week's social functions was the double wedding at 1355 North Main street on Thursday evening, at which time W. S. Cress and Miss Mattie Schopf, Josef Musselman and Mabel Casad were united in marriage.

The plans were so carefully laid that even the weather seemed to favor the affair, as a more pleasant day and evening for the event could not have been chosen, and not a thing marred the pleasure of the occasion,

The officiating ministers were Don S. you well know that we lead | Colt of Allegheny, Pa., and Dr. W. B. them all. Prices are what Slutz of the First Methodist church, this city, and the ceremony used was the ever-popular ring service,

The couples keeping step to the Mendelssohn wedding march, played by Miss Casad's sister Marie, came from ressing rooms, passed under the fern covered door and took their places in the parlor, where, surrounded by plants and flowers, the interesting words of the two ministers joined the two happy pairs. Dr. W. B. Slutz officiated for Mr. Cress and Miss Schopf and Rev. Colt for Mr. Musselman and Miss Casad.

The decorations of the evening were cut flowers and growing plants, while orange blossoms sweetly scented the rooms. The wedding supper was of

A party was given by Mrs. L. J. Mere dith, of North Washington avenue, in nonor of her brother, Charles McCarty, of Colorado Springs, who is visiting his mother and other relatives in this city, The party assembled to "watch the old year out and the new year in," and the evening was pleasantly spent until 9 o'clock, when a bountiful repast was spread, to which all present did full justice. After supper the company adjourned to the Pro-Cathedral, where they en joyed the beautiful and impressive ceremony of midnight mass, which cannot be seen again for a hundred years. When the services were ended the merry party again took possession of Mrs. Meredith's pleasant home, and after New Year greetings and general merry making were given a breakfast by their genfal hostess thus ending the old year and beginning the new with feasting and pleasure. At a very late, or rather early, hour they returned to their homes, wishing their pleasant host and hostess many more "Happy New Year" parties.

HARRY STANLEY'S PARTY. Mr. Harry Stanley entertained several of his friends at his home Monday evening. Games and music were indulged in and light refreshments were served, Those present were: Misses Blanche Imboden, Bessie Innes, Fode Stanley; Prof. Wareham, Bert Brown, Clarence Powell, Roy Mennings, Ed Staley, Gilbert Tucker, P. At the home of Mrs. Ed. Russell on North Lawrence avenue Friday afternoon the women of the U. C. T. were delightfully entertained by Mrs. Russell and Mrs. Sam MoNaghten. Whist was played with great interest and a lunch was served. The traveling men's wives are the most sociable beings on earth, and their functions are of the gayest kind.

MRS. DR. WENDELL ENTERTAINS. A very delightful event was the "house warming at Mrs. Dr. Wendle's, 1500 South Lawrence avenue, Monday evening. Her large, elegant residence was brilliantly illuminated and the four beautifully furnished parlors were warmed by great shining fires and by the faces of a host of friends who gathered to wish her a Happy New Year and to make the first evening of the year happy at all events. Whole families were there and the little ones enjoyed it as much as their fathers and mothers. The first part of the evening was given up to friends greeting friends and neighbors who had perhaps not met socially for a year, renewing their old friendship. A short address was given by Rev. Hontan and his remarks were very appropriate and kind, com-mending Mrs. Wendle to the love and sympathy of her neighbors. A few songs of fraternity were sung and joined in by the whole company with enthusiasm, Then Mrs. Lawrence gave some of her finest efforts in recitation, assisted by several others of good talent. There were songs and duets and funny dialogues, and finally a presentation of a lovely silk umbrella to Mrs. Wendle from her friends up town. The presentation was made by Mrs. Copeland and admitted of a good deal of fun. It was responded to in the same humor and was greeted by the whole company by bursts of laughter. Mrs. Lawrence then presented Mrs. Wenile with a purse of money, which seemed a goodly pile, this from immediate neighbors as a New Year's gift. Those present: Mr. and Mrs. Wooten, Mr. and Mrs. Hartzell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bell and family, Mr. and Mrs. Chase and family, Mrs. Keiser, Mr. and Mrs. Stuckwere: Miss Laura Davis, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. Davis, Mrs. John Richardson, Mrs. Knoblach, Myers, Mr. Otto Myers, Mr. and Mrs. Hell brand Mocha and Java Coffee ... ole, Miss Maud Struble, Mr. and Mrs. Mead and family, Mr. and Mrs. Good and family, Mr. and Mrs. Mann and family, Mr. and Mrs. Berry, Mr. and Mrs. Turner and family, Mr. Skinner and Miss Alma Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Poor, Mr. and Mrs. Everett, Mr. and Mrs. Schank, Miss Mabel Schank, Mr. and Mrs. Stovens and family, Miss Dora Benbow, Mrs. Lawrence, John Stewart and Roy Cotton.
